Application (Bom) No. 45 of 1933

A. P. Tewari

Applicant.

Versus

Allahabad Bank Ltd

Opponent

In the matter of an application under Section 23 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950.

The 28th day of January 1954

Present :

Shri F. Jeejeebhoy, President.
Shri D. E. Reuben, Member.
Shri A. Dasgupta, Member.

Appearance :

For the Applicant :—Shri A. C. Kakar, General Secretary, U.P. Bank Employees' Union, Agra.

For the Opponent :—Mr. D. T. Lawrie of M/s Crawford Bayley & Co.

Industry :—Banking.

ORDER

This is a complaint by one Shri A. P. Tewari under Section 23 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, against the action of the management in transferring him from Bareilly, where he has his home, to Nainital on the higher post of Head Cashier. His substantive post at Bareilly was that of Assistant Cashier. It has been stated in the application that the petitioner is an active member of the U.P. Bank Employees' Union, Organizer of the Bareilly Unit, Member of the State General Council, Member of the State Executive and one of the delegates to the All India Bank Employees' Association from U.P., and it is suggested that the Bank desired to remove him to Nainital by way of victimization. The employee declined to carry out his orders of transfer and thus he has refused to comply with an order which prima facie the Bank had the right to make. We have heard Mr. Kakar on behalf of the petitioner very fully; we are not satisfied that there has been victimization, and we took the view that something might be done which would take into consideration firstly, the undoubted right of the management to transfer an employee for the purposes of its business, and secondly as a concession in this case the possibility of allaying the suspicion that the petitioner had been victimised. The petitioner wished to continue in Bareilly even at the cost missing his turn for promotion.

2. When Mr. Lawrie started his address on behalf of the Bank, he was quite helpful, and very fairly made a proposal which coincided with what we ourselves had had in mind. There is no doubt that it was wrong of the petitioner not to have assumed his duties as he was required to do specially as he knew that he could always make an application under section 23 of the Act to us while we were sitting doing the Banks' Appeals. Instead of doing his duty he and his Union tried to whip up an agitation calculated to undermine discipline in the Bank an activity which we condemn. The management have denied all allegations of victimization and as a token of their bona fides have suggested that (a) the petitioner must first take up his duties as ordered at Nainital for a period of two months and (b) that he would be at liberty thereafter, if he so desired, to make an application to the Bank to be transferred to Bareilly to the post of Assistant Cashier, and such application would be favourably considered; his period of absence from duty being regarded as earned leave to the extent permissible and thereafter without pay. This solution is not unacceptable to the employee concerned, we are told that the period ought to be reduced to fifteen days; but that we are not disposed to do so, for we do not disguise our dislike of indiscipline.

3. We, therefore, pass the following orders on this complaint :

Upon the employee assuming his duties as Head Cashier at Nainital as already directed by the Bank, and his working there for a period of two months, he will be at liberty to make an application to be transferred as Assistant Cashier to the Bareilly Branch; and upon such an application being made, the Bank, as a token of their bona fides are willing to allow such transfer as soon as arrangements can be made. The period during which the employee has not joined duty will be regarded as privilege leave to the extent earned by him, and the rest as leave without pay.
